*In every proper closet lives a creature.
Every proper creature dreams of something.
Some dream of buttons,
some dream of correct order of things,
but one dreams of the sky, of seagulls, of the sea.*

Kristīne Zvirbule is an animator and animation assistant at the film studio "Atom Art". She has many years of experience, working as animator on various films by Latvian directors and on international projects.

At Atom Art, she has contributed to films such as "The Door Wizard", "Freeride in C", "A Song About the Wonder Cabinet", "Misaligned", "The Shammies", "Jacob, Mimmi and the Talking Dogs", and "Bize and Neņūla."

Kristīne loves cinema and animation, and finds inspiration in observing nature and birds, as well as in long walks by the sea. Her passion for classical drawing, experience working under different directors, and the creative environment at Atom Art, together with the support of her colleagues encouraged her to visualize her own story in the film "See the Sea".
